

CALL UP THE BOSSES!

Crocker and Divver Violated the Corrupt Practices Law.

They Were the Instigators of the Fraud in the Second.

Offered Prizes for Big Votes and Now Desert Their Tools.

The testimony in the trial of James A. Dooley, who was convicted of tampering with the ballots while acting as inspector in the Nineteenth Election District of the Second Assembly District, shows how banner districts are made and carried by Tammany Hall.

In the Nineteenth Election Precinct of the Second Assembly District 221 votes, all that were registered, were recorded for Maynard, and none for Bartlett, although eleven or twelve men swore they either voted the Republican ticket or were registered, but did not vote.

There are thirteen other election districts in this Assembly district in which similar liberties were taken with the ballot. In some the Tammany inspectors, in their zeal to carry off the banner, did not even allow the ballots of the Republican inspectors and watchers to go into the box, as the figures below will show. In fourteen districts "Paddy" Divver's heeled, purposed themselves and all records of honest Democratic votes. The 4,706 Tammany votes cast in the fourteen election districts in question almost equal the honest Democratic vote of the entire Assembly district, the normal vote being estimated at 6,000. There are thirty-four other election districts in the Second, but the fourteen mentioned take the palm for fraud.

Here is a list of them and the "official" returns of the last election:

I had used it for some time, and later every effort made to heal the running sores, but all in vain. Then it was that my father, having read much about the merits of Hood's Sarsaparilla, decided to have me give it a trial. I have taken it regularly, using nearly ten bottles. All the sores but two are healed, and these are nearly well. I have thrown away my crutches, and I can walk, go to school and do some work. I have a good appetite and real good health, and have increased in weight very much. Hogus Agent Gets $95 from Portchester Italians.

PORTCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 28.—A well-dressed Italian, about thirty-five years of age, who said he was Antonio Rocco, came to this place last week and told Chief of Police Parker that a rich brother of his had been murdered in Baltimore, and that he believed the murderer to be in either Portchester or Mount Vernon. Rocco asked the Chief's assistance in capturing the murderer, and said he would board around in this place to get on his trail. Chief Parker directed Rocco to the Purdy House, on Purdy avenue, where there are a number of Italian boarders. Rocco secured a room there, and had the room painted and repapered, telling the landlady that he had ordered furniture, which would arrive in some days. Rocco told the other Italian boarders that he was the agent of a Baltimore contracting firm, and offered them high wages and a long job if they would give him $100 as a guarantee that they would work until the contract was finished. John Gaspert and a Paul Leone were induced to furnish $40, all the money they had, and Angelo Caputo gave Rocco $50. Rocco then left for parts unknown.
